Merit Awards

- What is a Merit Award? A Merit Award/Scholarship is an award based entirely on your merits, and not on your need for financial aid. The University of Arizona awards students Merit Scholarships based off of their academic performance (Grade Point Average- GPA).
- How do I apply for Merit Scholarships? There is no additional scholarship application for our Merit Scholarships. You are reviewed for Merit Scholarships with the information provided on your application (Core GPA) at the time of your admissions decision.
- What is a Core GPA? Core GPA consists of ABOR's 16 academic coursework competency requirements (page 5 & 6).
- The University of Arizona will be suspending the use of Test Scores (SAT/ACT) for merit scholarship eligibility during the 2021-2020 for the entering class of Summer 2021 and Fall 2021.
- To be eligible for Merit Scholarships you must be admitted by May 1, 2021!
- The Merit Scholarship Grid can be found below and on the Office of Scholarships & Financial Aid's webpage.
