

Ready to be a Wildcat?

Here's how to ace your University of Arizona application

Apply at arizona.edu/apply

What you need to apply:

- List of high school coursework (an unofficial high school transcript or access to your classes and grades (from 9-11th year, and in-progress coursework/planned classes for 12th grade) from your high school student online portal)
- Emergency contact information
- Optional information about your activities, leadership experience, clubs, and organizations
- Optional personal statement
- Credit card, check, or fee waiver

Login information:

- Write down/remember your username, password, and email address used
- Use an email account you have easy access to (use a personal email account, not your high school account, if possible)
- Please use an appropriate email address. This is how the University will correspond with you regarding your admissions decision

A complete application includes:

- A completed and submitted online application
- Paid application fee or completed fee waiver built into the application
- Any additional information University of Arizona requests via your Future Wildcat portal

Important notes:

- Check your Future Wildcat portal for updates regarding your application including university requests for more information and admission decisions
- If applying to the Honors College or College of Fine Arts, you will need to submit an additional, supplemental application. Please review their website and application instructions to ensure your application is complete

- No test scores are needed for admissions or merit aid consideration. By submitting your completed University of Arizona application, you will automatically be considered for our merit scholarships (Wildcat Tuition Awards)
- Admissions decisions are made on a rolling basis. After submitting a completed application, you should hear back in about 2-4 weeks
- Check your email for updates about your application and communication from the University of Arizona

Congrats! You did it. Your application is complete!
