EDUCATION

American College of Education is pleased to partner with Agua Fria Union High School District

If you're ready for the next step in your career, American College of Education has the quality online programs to help you achieve your goals. Our programs* range from full degrees to certificates and micro-credentials – all to help you become exceptional in your field.

Our degrees are already affordable, but you pay even less because of the partnership between ACE and Agua Fria Union High School District. See the chart for your savings. This grant is available to all eligible employees who are ready to start a certificate or degree program at ACE.

With knowledgeable faculty and evidenced-based content, ACE is here to get you there.

* All programs may not be available in your state. Please refer to the College Catalog for availability. Partnership Grant does not apply to the RN to BSN program.
